

SA Cultural History

Spears and darts are the earliest evidence of humans in these parts. Early inhabitants were hunter/gatherers hunting large mammals such as mastodons. Cemeteries appear about 3000 years ago, and 1200 years ago ceramics, bows and arrows are found. Inhabitants camped along Salado Creek and used the San Antonio River as a major travel artery.