fable

A short story that is meant to teach a moral lesson. Usually, but not always, fables are stories with animals that talk like people.

The Ant and the Grasshopper

by Diane Merwood
and Gabriele Antenini

We have been learning about folklore.
The Ant and the Grasshopper is a fable.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=QXMpdvFG5I8>

The first story is a fable—a kind of folklore we have been learning about. The book teaches that gentleness can be strength. The second book relates weather to clothing and activities for different kinds of weather.

There are many books about leaves and fall. We learn how different authors use the same themes in different stories.

Leaves is the story of a bear who is very sad when the leaves fall. He tries to keep leaves on trees, but it doesn't work. Then he learns that leaves return in the Spring.

Let It Fall is a good shared reading book about all the things we do in the Fall. You can try to guess the rhyme. Onset rhyming is part of learning to read.

Leaf Man and Leaf Jumpers stretch your imagination! How many ways can you imagine to play with leaves?
