

Art, Poetry, Storytelling

Encountering
nature through art
and literacy

Storytelling

Storytelling uses nature as the springboard for imagination. While crafting a story the child truly engages in the natural world around.

Poetry

Creating poetry forces us to slow down and experience nature on multiple levels from the minute to the landscape, using all our senses. In this way we are intimately connected to the natural world.

Art

We can use nature both as the materials and inspiration for engaging our imagination to imagineer art.

Create a painting,
Dream a poem,
Craft a tale, craft a tale,
Use imagination
In your new creation,
Follow nature's trail,
Follow nature's trail!
