Transferring Volunteers

It took a while, but we finally figured out how to process volunteers that transfer from one chapter to another...

The process can be initiated by either the receiving or losing chapter by email. The losing chapter has to confirm that the members are in good standing and that their dues are paid.

The transfer is completed with a new type of survey called a 'Non-opportunity'. The volunteer is moved into the transfer folder which everyone can see. The transfer hours are then linked to the person, not the projects that they worked on. Their hours remain visible to the losing chapter through the opportunity grids.

One of the things to watch for when you are viewing logbook entries, either through the opportunities or volunteer tabs is what types of logbooks you are viewing.

Be sure to check which logbooks you are looking at - you can choose only normal logbook entries, or you can look at the transfer logbooks, or you can look at all of them.

The Opportunity Organization Field in the Contact Info tab is key to working in a statewide system.

The organization field should contain the organization that sponsors the event or activity (such as 'Keep Waco Beautiful' or 'Davis Mountain Preserve'). If it's a local organization it should be spelled out as much as possible so that the statewide management team can determine who the organization is directly, it will also eliminate possible duplications of acronyms. National, or statewide organizations (like TPWD, NOAA, NPSOT, etc) can use their common acronym. There are always some opportunities that are sponsored by the chapter itself. The Opportunity TMN

Standard grid sorts first on the organization field so that all opportunities for that organization can be seen together.

Why do we use it? Using the organization field properly allows the statewide management team to see all of the opportunities that are sponsored by that organization across the entire Master Naturalist Program. It also allows the roll-out coordinators to find similar opportunities in other chapters that can be copied into other chapters.
