

New Master Naturalist
Class Starts Feb. 10, 2012

Sign Up Now!
Deadline February 1!

TRAINING TOPICS

Classroom training and field trips by experts in the areas of:

Plants Grasses Fauna
Forests Wetlands
Geology Soils Archeology
Birds Insects Reptiles
Fish Mammals
And Ecological habitat management

CLASS SCHEDULE

- Alternate Fridays Feb 10 through Sept 2012, from 10am—2pm, held at Milano Methodist Church.
- Plus several Field Trips around the county.

Learn all about Nature, Wildlife and Conservation. Apply your knowledge on your own property, participate in volunteer projects in Milam County, and share your knowledge with others.

EL CAMINO REAL APPLICATION PROCESS

- Complete application form available from our website <http://txmn.com/elcamino/how-to-join> or via Cameron AgriLife Extension Office 254-697-7045, or call/text Dorothy Mayer at 254-482-3235
- Include check for $150 initial registration fee
- Pass basic background check (we work with kids)
- Submission Deadline February 1, 2012
- Class limited to first 20 applications, don't delay!

Sponsored by the El Camino Real Chapter of the Texas Master Naturalist Program.

The Texas Master Naturalist program activities are coordinated by AgriLife Extension and Texas Parks and Wildlife. Texas Master Naturalist and Extension programs serve all people regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, disability or national origin.

