

Interpretive Trail Guiding

By David Powell

Certified Trail Guide at the Heard Natural Science Museum and Wildlife Sanctuary

Member of the Blackland Prairie Chapter of Texas Master
Naturalist

What makes a interpretive guide?

What makes a interpretive guide?

- Attitude

What makes a interpretive guide?

- Attitude
- Knowledge of area and environment

What makes a interpretive guide?

- Attitude
- Knowledge of area and environment
- Willingness to share that knowledge

What makes a interpretive guide?

- Attitude
- Knowledge of area and environment
- Willingness to share that knowledge
- Understanding of different learning styles

What makes a interpretive guide?

- Attitude
- Knowledge of area and environment
- Willingness to share that knowledge
- Understanding of different learning styles
- Tools to enhance appreciation of visitor

What makes a interpretive guide?

- Attitude
- Knowledge of area and environment
- Willingness to share that knowledge
- Understanding of different learning styles
- Tools to enhance appreciation of visitor
- Invite visitors to return

Example

Tools you might use on the trail.

Tools

- Hand magnifiers (loops)

Tools

- Hand magnifiers (loops)
- Mirrors (hand held)

Tools

- Hand magnifiers (loops)
- Mirrors (hand held)
- Paint samples (from hardware store)

Questions?

I would like to go outside and demonstrate what I have been sharing with you, so please join me for a little fun outside